

James North (1823-1877)

Sarah Shepherd (1827-1907). Wife of James North

Sackville Street Port Fairy Victoria in the 1850's

SS Active on which the North family arrived in Otago N.Z.

Papers Past — Otago Witness — 1 September 1860

---

ARRIVALS.

August 25.—Active, 136 tons. Gunn, from Melbourne. 167 bags sugar, 30 half-chests tea, 10 cases coffee, 206 bales tobacco, 9 boxes currants, 3 qr.-casks whisky, 14 mould boards, 1 bale bags, 6 trunks boots, 12 pkgs. leather, 1 case grindery, 29 pkgs. furniture, 37 cases chairs, 7 cases clocks, 1 case clothing, 307 bags flour, 6 kegs nails, 1 case files, 1 cask hardware, 1 case beef, 1 case castor oil, 1 cask fish, 20 boxes pipes, 4 cart boxes, 1 harrowing machine, 1 case ploughs. Passengers—Mr. and Mrs. North, Fanny, Fredk., Thos., Harry, Clara, and infant North.; Jas., Thos., and Wm. Martin, Mr., Mrs., and Charlotte Taylor, H. Humphrey, Isaac and William Rome, George Jones, Mary and Jane Dunn. R. D. Martin & Co., agents.